

THE BLACK ROSE ARTS & CULTURE PROJECT IS ON THE MOVE !

During the third quarter of this school year, the Black Rose Project will once more tour the Primary and Secondary schools of the Western Province with their Arts & Culture workshop now running in its fifth consecutive year.

Black Rose African Jazz Band is an inspirational music ensemble that offers educational interactive workshops in schools centered around music. If your school did not host the Black Rose Arts & Culture workshop yet, then book them now and treat your learners to their music workshop: Learning has never been this much fun!

Give them a call or reply to this email to find a suitable date to host the project at your school premises during this school year. It will be an unforgettable experience for you and your learners!

The Arts & Culture Project has toured in South African and European schools and has been praised for its joyful and socially responsible program in today's world. Check out the videos and press coverage on their website www.populojazz.com and see for yourself! Contact: info@populojazz.com
